

Jamie Radtke

CEO & President, ExploreGod

Jamie Radtke brings over 30 years of leadership experience across corporate, nonprofit, and public sectors. Her expertise spans executive management, public relations, customer acquisition and engagement, marketing and communications, content development, and fundraising. Currently serving as the CEO of Global Media Outreach (GMO), Jamie previously held the role of Chief Growth Officer at the organization.

Before joining GMO, Jamie was the President & CEO of Explore God, leading the organization's mission to help people explore their faith. Prior to her work in the nonprofit sector, Jamie spent 20 years in the public sector, where she played a significant role in various initiatives, including her 2012 campaign for the United States Senate.

Jamie holds a Master of Public Policy from The College of William & Mary and a Bachelor of Science from Liberty University.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Jamie and her husband of over 25 years are passionate advocates for foster care and adoption. Together, they have four children, and their youngest was adopted from foster care at the age of 8.
